In this video we explain some objectives of 5G. If it is not a bandwidth ... then what is it for? This is the third in a series of 4 videos on 5G technology.

- 1.- What is 5G and how does it affect us?
- 2.- How can we protect ourselves?
- 3.- What is its objective?
- 4.- How is it related to the current situation?

If it has been of interest to you, we encourage you to share, it is important that as many people as possible are informed.

Hello friends. I am Cristina of Pleiadian Knowledge. This is the third video. So far we have explained what 5G is, how it affects us and animals, and also how we can protect ourselves. So today I am going to tell you, or explain, what objectives 5G has, why they are doing it. If you haven't seen the other 2 videos, I encourage you to do so, so that this information can be better understood. By now you will know that 5G is not a bandwidth, but rather a weapon for biology, that is why it is being heavily censored in all media, including here on YouTube. This weapon has many objectives, among them are:

SYNTHETIC TELEPATHY

Synthetic telepathy includes many, many things, such as:

Crowd control.

Health control.

Control of consumption.

Control of the economy.

Control of movement

And as a military weapon.

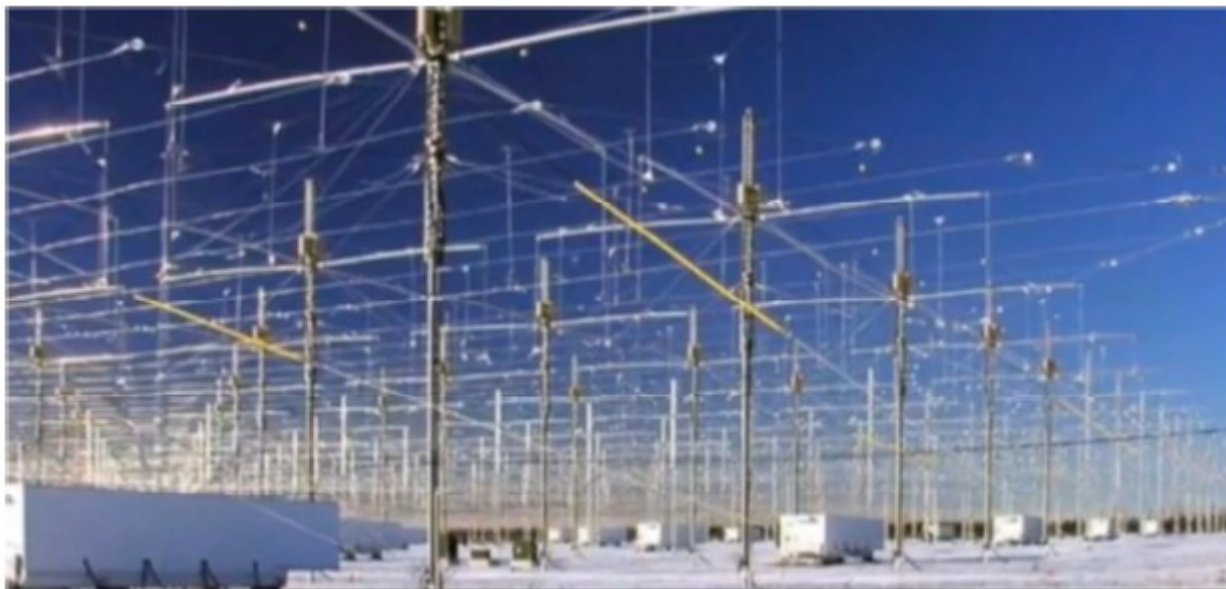

Before we start with all these subtopics, let's explain what synthetic telepathy is. What is synthetic telepathy? Well, synthetic telepathy is when they inject (project) something into your mind artificially and you identify it as yours, as your own thought. Remember that 5G, as we explained in the first video, works at the same level as our brain waves. Our brain waves, Alpha waves. So with it they can, in some way, modify our thinking. It is mind control by specific electromagnetic waves. This technology has been put into practice a few years ago. And how can they do this? Well, through these specific electromagnetic waves, since our brain is composed, as you know, of a neuro electrical network, since the neurons in the brain somehow pass the information through electrical impulses.

You just have to know how to modify them and this is not new. There are many scientists in recent years who have been investigating all of this. Lawyer Louise Doswald Beck, specialized in International Law and Gerald Cauderay, industrial and scientific advisor at the Swiss embassy in Moscow, already published a report in the Official Committee of the Red Cross Bulletin on 11/01/1990 that explained the following:

That small doses of electromagnetic energy can alter the functioning of cells.

On the other hand, Dr. Elizabeth Browser, a nuclear physicist who directed the San Leandro Technological Research Laboratory in California, United States and who led an in-depth research on ELF, low-frequency waves, confirmed that it could modify the behavior of 80% of the inhabitants of California, creating emotional states such as euphoria or aggressiveness, without the inhabitants knowing it.

In addition, she also alerted the danger of the HAARP project, (High Frequency Active Auroral Research Program) This project, with its hundreds of millions of watts of power and its antennas emitting microwaves, can be a super heater to the upper atmosphere causing a tremendous ionization, which can have unpredictable consequences. With its mirror effect, you can also direct its effects to any region of the planet. A new weapon of climate manipulation capable of intensifying storms, causing frosts, prolonging droughts over certain territories in a precise way, damaging any specific region without its inhabitants noticing. It is certainly a remote control of the climate.

Also Richard Cesaro, director of DARPA during the Pandora project, who worked for the Navy and the NSA, an agency specialized in telecommunications and espionage, ended up making public:

To achieve a technological leap in the military field, you have to go beyond bombs and control the minds of enemies. And he added: The possibility of exerting a certain degree of control over human behavior by means of low-intensity microwaves is reasonable in the light of our research.

But this is not all, not only can human thinking be modified, it can also be read. Thomas Jensen, from Rush Presbyterian St. Luke's Medical Center in Missouri, United States, showed that milliseconds before pronouncing a word, the brain emits certain waves for that word and those waves are exactly the same from one person to another.

And other scientists went further. Edward Hoffmann, deputy director of the Yale Psychiatric Institute in Connecticut, United States, argues that the voices that schizophrenics hear can be destroyed by magnetic impulses. All of this was put to the test with a monkey experiment in which the monkeys were given various rewards and they could choose which reward they got. A computer recorded the brain waves of each monkey when it chose each of the rewards and through the registration of all these readings, they were able to get to know what rewards the monkey would take before taking it. And the list is long, very long. I encourage you to investigate all these studies and many more that aim at human mind control through these positronic weapons. As always, the same strategy makes us believe that scientific advances are small or immature, but when this has already filtered down to the civilian population, it means that military advances in this area are very advanced and developed, and not only in monkeys. nor psychiatric patients, but this has already been put to use by the civilian population at this time.

This seems to have been tested for the first time a few years ago at the facilities of the University of Berkeley in California, where some members of the campus had applications with mobile phones with which they could signal the GWEN tower so that it would emit a signal to a certain individual. And, this one, for example, was ordered to attack another student. This experiment was denounced by professors and students. At this time, thousands of people have grouped into various associations that claim to bring together victims of these positronic attacks.

HOW ARE THEY CARRYING OUT IT?

And how are they controlling us? How are they doing these attacks on the population? These specific electromagnetic waves are passed through the GWEN Towers and received by our mobiles. And who does not have a mobile? That is why they have made sure that all or almost all the inhabitants of planet Earth have one. As we do not all use mobile phones the same, that is why they are fighting to impose the total vaccination of the population. Vaccines contain heavy metals and nanotechnology, which comes to work with 5G technology. If they inject nano chips into all of us, you cannot leave them at home or turn them off whenever you want.

And neither the Swiss, nor the Swedes, nor all the countries that do not want 5G Towers are saved. Just by getting vaccinated, 5G is being broadcast through the military, through satellites and also through balloons that are distributing these electromagnetic waves throughout the planet.

What do they want to achieve with this? And why do they want to do this? To control the civilian population. Control is undoubtedly the success of the pyramid.

MASS CONTROL

These positronic weapons are being used in sports arenas, for example, to encourage specific reactions. Through this, they can control the riots, they can control the masses. Remember that unity is strength and this is a danger for those who are up there. They can dismantle or call off a demonstration only by injecting thoughts into the protesters. Through the Gwen Towers, whether or not it is 5G, they can send remote instructions to people who do one thing or another.

HEALTH CONTROL

The existence of 5G in a place will make people more vulnerable, making them catch the flu or any other disease much more easily. Through mobile phones they can cause mood changes, specific behaviors, moods, neuronal problems such as epilepsy, and so on. They can still work with the mobile turned off and this has been in operation for about 5 years. With the chips in the body, the control, as I have explained before, would be much greater.

How does the chip work? The signal is directed to the chip and it can more easily manipulate our behavior and moods. The chip secretes psychotropic substances or nano bots into the bloodstream in order not only to manipulate behavior, but also to cause a disease such as cancer or even death, causing, for example, a cardiac arrest in the person.

They can make the population sick by locking them in an electromagnetic soup. Also note that these chips can be remotely turned off. Many scientists are already connecting the dots and linking the introduction of waves to many of the pandemics we have experienced in the last 100 years. And it is that microwaves harm people and all living beings and this is undeniable at this point. With this technology, they can cause pandemics in one place or another, affect people who want it, and this gives free rein to all large pharmaceutical companies so that they can sell all their products with full guarantee.

CONSUMPTION CONTROL

With this technology they can make you consume one or another product by inserting a synthetic idea in your mind. Welcome to the advertising of the future or rather, to the present. Do you remember subliminal advertising in movies? The one where you were watching a movie at the cinema? And suddenly, well, an image of a Coca Cola appeared, for example. And nobody saw it, but your subconscious had captured it and many people got up and consumed Coca Cola. Well, this is now quite controlled, but we have other types of advertising, advertisements, banners all over the place, between social networks. Advertising is filtered everywhere, but each time people try in some way to escape that advertising, so large companies will be able to pay a large sum of money for the controllers to emit a signal in a specific place, in a specific population, or where they want, for that population to buy another product. And this is already a fact. Do you remember the Toilet Paper Apocalypse? That many people in the confinement, as they began to buy toilet paper in large masses and that it ran out in many places and many supermarkets had absolutely everything except toilet paper that, as Anéeka explained through Robert in her live, this could be a perfect proof of consumer control.

And if you want more proof of this, you can see that Kimberly Clark, manufacturer of Kleenex tissues and Scottex toilet paper, has increased its profit by 45% in the month of March. And why did people buy toilet paper? Why wasn't it something else? Well, because it is very likely that this was a test of synthetic telepathy for consumption. This is the bargain for any company. And this is not like subliminal advertising, or the excess of ads, that can be reported in some way, this is invisible advertising that does not leave a mark on the brain, and it will be very difficult to show that we are being attacked with this inserted advertising.

ECONOMIC CONTROL

The imposition of 5G will put greater control over digital systems on the network around the world. And it is necessary to implement the fully digitized economy, finally eliminating physical money. With this they will know how much money you have, how much you spend and what you spend it on. Total control.

MOVEMENT CONTROL

In 5G, it is also a high-tech micro bots and nanoparticles control system that will be used to track all people in real time, and with the chip it does not matter if your mobile was broken or you left it at home.

MILITARY WEAPON

This technology is being implemented as exotic weapons that are being used on the battlefields, being able to modify the behavior of the enemy within their radius of influence, causing, for example, feelings of terror or implanting ideas that they will take as their own.

And here I have explained a little of the objectives of the 5G. Remember that this technology is in both directions, that is, they can both insert thoughts in your head in your head, as well as they can read them, as we have already said through an artificial intelligence that can read our brain waves and translate them in some way to our thinking. Knowing what we think or what we are going to do is very useful to anticipate our movements. And do not forget here, that the excuse is and will be our security so that we allow in some way all this so that we give our rights and our freedom to all these controllers.

It is very important here to stay at a high frequency. As I already mentioned in the other video, so that we somehow avoid all this affecting us. because these synthetic thoughts that are injected into our mind, with good inner work we can identify them and get rid of them. It is like natural telepathy, in natural telepathy we get a lot of thoughts from other people and since we are not pending or we are not putting it into practice, we identify them as our own and many times they are thoughts, they are emotions that sometimes one feels in some strange way and does not understand why, and many times it is because we are telepathically absorbing the emotions of our environment. So here it is very important that we work on our frequency and on our thoughts so that if at any time we receive a thought, we can classify it in some way and those other than our own can be removed and eliminated from our head. And this video is also so that we gain a little awareness of what our mobiles really are and that we begin to take measures against all this. I would like to add that the elite communicates with MUON NEUTRINO which does not harm biology. From here I make a call so that animals are not used in any experiment

Here I end the video. I wish this would be interesting to you. Thank you very much for being here and listening and see you in the next video.
