This is for all the people who say out there that our information is "corrupted" or negative. I write this as it is beyond my comprehension to understand why. What's corrupted about our information exactly? People don't like the fact that the Federation runs Earth and is not such a love and light organization? Or that papayas are ruining humanity? Or that CIA is infiltrating the UFO communities? What's corrupted exactly about that?

Why are the so called awakened people who already supposedly "woke up" to the atrocities of the system and all kinds of negativities running in this Matrix, stop at a certain level and don't want to dig deeper?? It boggles my mind. Those awakened people also talk to their friends about shadow government, chemtrails, satanic rituals, food additives, lies on TV, 5G, dangers in vaccines. Sorry to say: you are spreading fear and negativity! OR ARE YOU? I am sure you don't see yourself being negative. You think you are waking them up no? Well, same here!

What we are doing is waking up the awakened ones. Sorry to say, there is more Matrix down the rabbit hole, it ain't all pretty, and I wish to undig it all as only then it can be dealt with. Some will stay on the surface level of awakening, others will dare to look further. Your reaction to us unraveling deeper layers of the Matrix is the same as the unawakened people react to YOU revealing all the above (chemtrails, food additives, lies on TV, 5G, dangers in vaccines, etc).

What do people want to hear exactly? How love and light is winning? That Cabal is being defeated and elves are being rescued from DUMBS? That they are liberating planet Fufu in the far away place in the galaxy? None of that would be true, or relevant, so why even go there?

What IS true though is that the fight is not over and we must all continue to plunge forward against the Cabal's actions against our race, or we won't make it when the Cabal hits us all ignorant and looking at rainbows instead. It is already doing this while we clap all happy because the "planet Fufu gets liberated." This is war, HERE, on EARTH, and THIS IS WHERE the action must take place. NOW. Do NOT wait.

Yazhi is a warrior, mass agitator, she has experience gathering crowds and leading them to battles. But she doesn't do that wasting time distributing biscuits. Neither do I. So what we do is not for the fainthearted. Stay strong and fight for the humanity or perish. We ain't your regular New Age group. We are rebels. And among the few ones that truly care about the fate of this race. We don't hide behind facades. We don't sell books and are not here to gather happy fans. We are here to do what WE feel is the right thing to do. In the end, we do this for ourselves. Like us or hate us, but we will continue doing it our way as it is the only way we know.
