"Sodium is good and necessary. It's not true that it causes blood pressure to rise from fluid retention and other biochemical processes. I see this demonizing salt as part of controlling sodium on Earth for the zombification or stupification of the masses..." - Sophia Swaruu - Yazhi

Zombification of humanity and the Pulsa Denura – Sophia Swaruu-Yazhi

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - I see things, I don't really sleep, my body does, but I remain conscious on other planes, but I can also lose consciousness at will, but it is never the same as sleep as you know it. I have visions all the time. They are not always relevant. I see salt. I see people on Earth being attacked with salt, salt in various forms, or chemical compounds derived from salt that end up not being the kind of salt that their nervous system, especially their brain, needs, leaving them with a sodium deficit of the correct sort, which opens the human mind to parasitization and zombification, Mind Control, closing them off to seeing the obvious. The zombie as it is known in Haiti, is made by bringing a person to the brink of irreversible death with the use of black magic. Everything that makes it up, complicated, where the doctors declare a person dead and even buried or on the verge of being buried, but this is a kind of magical ecstasy, real magic, but not like in Harry Potter. But something is something to that, and that is when people leave, the regressive magician recovers the body and partially awakens it.

I see a vision that, at least in part, this black magic composes or is composed of substances that desalinate (desalinate?) the body, leaving it in a state of low propagation or transmission of nerve impulses. In Africa and Haiti, where the zombification of people is common to this day, these people who are left for dead by their relatives are taken away where they are used as slave labor, mostly in plantations of all kinds, especially drug plantations. Vision again. And in itself, it is not the classic zombie of the movies where it is a rotten being animated by an entity from the lower astral that has never incarnated as a human, therefore, it does not realize that it is not a human, or that they need to clean and wash themselves, or that their body is falling apart. This zombie is literally a living dead.

His body lives, but his soul-consciousness is at a minimum, it has withdrawn, and the body only remains alive, in a state of extensive brain and nerve damage. So this kind of zombie still needs to be fed. It is said in Haiti that a zombie of this kind, manipulable and walking, yes, receiving only simple orders from those who control it with black magic, should never be given any salt in its poor diet composed of food made of elements with minimal sodium or has all sodium removed. Sodium is an element without which the nervous system cannot function because it is what gives the nerve cells the potential for electrical transmission. Bodies are electrical, they don't run on calories, everything is electrical potential and its interplay of transmission and retention voltages between cells. If the system decays, a disease process enters, all depending on where the electrical problem is, because everything is psychosomatic, a process of consciousness, which manifests, which curdles, which agglomerates energy into something tangible called matter, this by nodes energy as explained in mechanics of manifestation. So, you control the sodium in the body, specifically the sodium-potassium cell pump effect, and you control the electrical impulse and potential of the electrical transmission of a body and the body on where or how much frequency of the electrical current can be achieved by changing the transmitter potential of the sodium type that predominates in the body.

Returning to the zombies of Haiti. When a regressive wizard controller is no longer served by his zombies, or when he feels like he's going to be found with them, whoever they are, shall we say, authorities, then what this black wizard will give each zombie food with sodium or give them a handful of sea salt in their hand and order them to eat it. It is said that is when they progressively wake up from that trance, from that lethargy or ecstasy quite quickly, in a matter of minutes or hours, the texts do not specify it, and the subject regaining consciousness even in a state of high confusion will wander through the field, through the streets, until he regains greater or sufficient consciousness. This sometimes already being caught by the police for being lazy and taken for drugged or drunk, and from there, if he is identified, it is when he finally reaches his relatives, I suppose.

At this time industrial table salt in all countries contains sodium fluoride. Sodium fluoride neutralizes the salt and changes its electrical transmission potential to a range of specific frequencies that the controllers already have, which in turn impose their black magic of Mind Control using multiple systems or methods, from mass media or direct black magic. Sodium fluoride is present in basically all industrialized foods, not just toothpaste. We also found the largescale presence of monosodium glutamate that demyelinates neurons by lowering their firing potential depolarization in its axioms hindering electrical transmission in general. Basically what MSG-does is like stripping or thinning the insulation off an electrical wire causing leaks and short circuits. Hence we find countless saline chemical compounds in processed foods that also alter the transmission frequency and electrical potential of the nervous system of human bodies. So, as the electrical energy of the human body is based on micro frequencies and combined with other technologies such as electromagnetic radiation and now the "banderillas (translator: code for vaccines)", and this entire system is altered by the lack of salt of the correct type, the zombie effect, at least for me, is widely explained from an angle never seen before. Keep in mind that I saw all this from the astral side.

Gosia. - So sodium is good, yes, where is it found?

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi .- Sodium is good and necessary. It is not true that it causes blood pressure to rise due to fluid retention and other biochemical processes. I see this demonizing salt as part of the control over sodium on Earth for zombification or stupidification of the masses.

Gosia. - But how do you know where the good sodium is found, apart from sea salt, I imagine?

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi .- There is mineral salt from mines, basically it is old sea salt, it is not as good as sea salt in my opinion, but at least it is not fluoridated. You should take real, pure sea salt, or pure mineral derivatives of salt, such as Himalayan salt and similar, non-industrialized salt, and you should avoid the consumption of fluorinated salt at all costs.

Gosia. - Yes, people already know about sea salt versus industrial salt, but they don't know about zombification, what you mentioned.

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi .- I see a connection between salt, industrialized salt that modulates the possible electrical frequency of the central nervous system, sodium fluoride, another kind of salt altered with the mental lethargy in which humanity finds itself, especially regarding the "banderilleada (vaccine)". As is known, sodium fluoride is used to make people sleepy, to make them docile and submissive. This is part of the spell I am talking about, of the black magic present, because there is black magic here, I see it, they use it.

Robert. -Cooking with sea water?

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - If it is pure, yes, but I feel that the unprocessed one that you get in health food stores is enough.

Gosia. - Wow, ok, yes, it makes a lot of sense. Collective global black magic, of course, if it is used in small ceremonies why would it not work on a collective scale.

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - They use it, and I know they use it because I realized that the rabbis use something called Pulsa Denoura* which they say is not ritual, but ritual it is. Astral parasites, yes, a bit of everything, because the modification of the frequency of the bioelectronic process of a body makes it concordant to the parasitization. * Pulsa Denoura ( "פולסא דנורא" , whips of fire" in Aramaic) Pulsa Denoura is a kabbalistic ceremony in which the angels of destruction are invoked to bring about the annihilation of an enemy, preventing the forgiveness of their sins and attracting on him all the biblical curses. - Wikipedia

Robert. -Yes, it is clear that they are doing something with humanity. I'd say they're doing it on a collective scale, Gosia. This information is new, yes, and what is the final purpose, to dumb down the population more?

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - Control of the masses with a view to global depopulation to avoid the great awakening.

Gosia. - What is the Pulsa Denura?

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - Pulsa Denoura is just black magic disguised as divine will.

Gosia. - Same purpose as always.

Robert. -Avoid the great awakening. Nice battle.

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - Pulsa Denura is a ritual although the rabbis say it is not, where ten holy men, pure rabbis, all must have families and children, all over 40 years of age, and after exactly three days fasting, they pray and read passages from one of their secret books connected to the kabbalah or from the kabbalah as hidden texts, where they ask for divine intervention to judge a person or a situation and put an end to the problem, elimination of said person or resolution of the problem in question in favor of the person requesting Pulsa Denura. The rabbis must be pure in mind and tradition, and what they ask for must be concise and clear, because they are supposed to be asking for divine intervention and for god to judge a person or circumstance-situation, and if god sees or realizes that what he asks is not justified by falsely accusing a person, for example, the Pulsa Denura will be reverted to the ten rabbis by bringing down on them a curse that will scourge them and their families for four generations, that is to say that what the 10 pure rabbis ask against something or someone, if that is reversed, they will have over them for four generations, so they must be very careful with what they ask for. They say that it is not a ritual, however I realized that it is, since they use blood sacrifices from white chickens to enhance their ritual. Who says no to other animals and people, huh? It is said that the Pulsa Denura is not ritual and that it invokes the power of god, however, from someone observing this from the outside, it has a clear tint of ritual, even satanic. I don't see it as invoking God's judgment and divine intervention.

Gosia. - You said: They use it and I know they use it because I realized that the rabbis use something called Pulsa Denoura. But what does the black magic of the controllers have to do with the fact that the rabbis do it? Why did you make this connection?

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - Rabbis are high priests of Judaism, it is the base of Egypt, the base of the Cabal, they are part of the Illuminati system, and simply if the rabbis themselves are capable of doing all that with the Pulsa Denura, which does work, imagine what the high illuminati regressive controllers can do. It is by logic. It is more of the same story of the god Yahweh, who asks for ritual sacrifices, 'scapegoats', which is to kill a boy instead of your son and who is ultimately supposed to have sent his own son, Jesus, to be sacrificed so that his martyrdom atones for the original sin of humanity, thereby saving the souls of all who follow it, ergo, they use rituals.

Robert. -Yes, but now rituals on a large planetary scale.

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - That's why. Yes, that's why I say all this, that's why I assure you that people are under black magic aided by electromagnetic frequencies in turn enhanced by control of body sodium. They invoke all kinds of entities from the lower astral and who knows what else, to fulfill their purposes.

Gosia. - But why rabbis? How do they relate? Just as an example. And this you have seen in the astral vision, yes? What about sodium and zombies?

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - Yes, I didn't even have this in mind last night when I fell asleep.

Gosia. - And were you seeking to know about that or did it come on its own?

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - As I have told you, I have a lot of astral activity, I saw it together.

Robert. -But where is all this directed from, from the astral or from Earth?

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - Higher up makes sense. It is a renewal of the Earth. Above, everything will change according to where each person is, whoever they are. Its frequency defines the person and vice versa, but many will die in the process and that cannot be avoided now.

Robert. -They will die because they are not consistent with this frequency. Who will stay?

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - Basically nobody. According to the system, those almost without a soul, and many without a soul.

Robert. -Because it is clear that those who are asleep die and are in some way consistent with these events and those who are awake will live who are not consistent with the frequencies of these events. Do only those who have no soul leave and the rest stay for frequency compatibility?

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - Everything is frequency compatibility. This is what I say: They must follow what they believe to be right and what they see as reality. So if you want protests, so be it. However, mass disobedience is the correct response, ignoring governments en masse. However, since there is not enough mass of the population ignoring the governments en masse, then, I see it valid to resort to any method that they see possible, except in doing nothing and folding their hands, and obeying, never that. The only thing that counts here is the fight for one's own souls and on a personal level more than anything, that's where this is won or lost. The moment they have waged a war, people versus Cabal, they lose, because for wars of all kinds, from weaponized to mental to confusion, they only exist when there are opponents. It's not even about beating the Cabal, per se, but about focusing on being genuine and true to yourself. All they have to do is follow the interests of their souls, not those of the Cabal controlled and manipulated Matrix collective.

Gosia. - And if giving resistance and fighting to the Cabal is what one feels as genuine and in accordance with oneself? Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. – So, that's what you should do, remembering that, ergo, without clowns there is no circus. That is why we have always said that they should see, read and listen to everything within their reach in order to form a personal criterion about the nature of reality on which each one bases himself to govern his life, always keeping in mind that they must stick to systems of thought even if they are pleasing to them and always have the flexibility to adopt new ideas discarding old ones as things develop. It is that even if they die in the fight, if that is what they want, that is to win, because they were faithful to their principles, ergo, faithful to their souls, which brings about that surpassed incarnation.

Robert. -But to be faithful to your principles it is not necessary to reach this point, with saying: "I do not consent", there is more than enough.

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - It depends on the level of consciousness of each person and the capacities they have and what they are capable of. For example, a person who feels that they have no influence over others, like many seeds that not even their relatives pay attention to, just has to be completely faithful to himself and with that he is already doing his job and fulfilling his life purpose. But a person with greater responsibility, like you, must continue within their capabilities in the fight in more direct ways, since their power is much greater, range of influence, or whatever.

Gosia. - It makes sense. Yes. Each according to their range of influence and possibilities. And that, Yazhi, so with all this movement against the restrictions, what do you see that could happen there? Is there any hope? In other words, those who die will die, but in fact it is also necessary for the creation of a possible Holographic Society, and those who remain, could they organize new systems? Do you see that as possible?

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - Yes, it is possible and necessary. The topic is very extensive.

Robert. -Implementation of a Holographic Society on Earth, is that possible, or would it be a substitute?

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - In a non-immediate process, with the current human mentality, it is not possible. Not even with the so-called awake ones, because they are not. Everything is a gradient of consciousness and they are not at that level. Only a few. That is why it ends up being seen that the depopulation of so many millions of matrix-sheep is not only inevitable but also necessary, being that for humanity to progress towards a more noble and just social model with a view to a later Holographic Society, or for the creation of a tyrannical trans humanist society, in both cases, requires a depopulation. However, the murder of millions is not necessary, there are other ways.

Gosia. - Yes, but provisional societies can be installed, that's why I say, that all these people who are revealing themselves, they are the ones who would inherit new provisional societies, if it is done.

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - That is why genocide is not necessary. And I recognize it, they must do more, because I also recognize that there is not enough mass of people for mass disobedience to occur. As there are not enough people for mass disobedience, there is only that, disobedience manifesting, but remember that these are scenarios for false flags and for the introduction of agents that move a peaceful demonstration in the direction of one with violence with a view to collapse public support for this demonstration that began peacefully.

Gosia. - Yes, like, and our job is ticket agents. It cannot be stopped for fear that someone will use it for false flags. We must continue without fear.

Sophia Swaruu – Yazhi. - It is very idyllic to think that if 90% or more of the people simply ignoring what the governments dictate, if so this would all be other, but that is utopian, it would apply to what a person who feels they have no power can do for herself. She has it on herself and that's a lot. That is what it is about, being faithful to your souls, preserving them and not allowing them to be taken away, be it with Mind Control as well as with vaccines, or with sodium made into a weapon.
